

Religious Freedom & Critical Legal Issues For Christians Living Their Calling

Today we are experiencing unprecedented: 1. restrictions on the free exercise of religion, 2. attacks involving the separation of church and state, 3. limitations on the free speech permitted to people of faith, 4. challenges on protecting the unborn, and 5. legal challenges to the teachings and practices of Christians.

Professor Brad Jacob, Associate Dean and Constitutional Law Professor at Regent University School of Law, focuses on these issues. After a successful career in two global law firms, he served as Executive Director and CEO of the Christian Legal Society and as a Professor and Dean at several Colleges and Universities.

Professor Jacob studies and teaches the latest legal matters impacting Christian churches, organizations, and faithful. He is extensively published, including his “Living Out My Calling” article in the Journal of Christian Legal Thought that we will discuss.

Tune in to learn what is happening on critical current legal issues that matter most to our Christian churches, institutions, and faithful.
